Sen. McManus applauds Attorney General opinion regarding the Legal Birth Definition Act

Senator McManus issued the following statement regarding Michigan Attorney General Mike Cox's Opinion Number 7174, regarding application of the Legal Birth Definition Act:

"I am pleased the Attorney General of Michigan has confirmed what I and others have been saying since Senate Bill 395 was first introduced last year. The Legal Birth Definition Act protects children who are in the process of being born while providing safeguards for those who act to protect the life and health of the mother. This is a victory for the children of Michigan and for everyone who cares about their safety and well-being."
